Further Particulars of the Recent Earthquake.

WHOLE VILLAGES DEVASTATED.

Great fissures torn in the earth from which warm water and yellow mud are still flowing—People afraid to return to their homes and are living in the open fields.

BEGRAD, April 11.—Further particulars of the earthquake in Serbia have reached here and proves the disaster to have been greater than at first reported. In western Serbia the shock was especially severe. Near Pozarevatz and along the Morava river villages were devastated, and the people sprang from their beds to run half clothed to the fields.

Around Ohupria and Svilainatz, in eastern Serbia, great fissures were torn in the earth. From Livadia similar phenomena are reported. Large streams of warm water and yellow mud still flow from the fissures. Thousands of houses and many churches have been wrecked. Public buildings have been rendered too dangerous for occupancy. In the districts where the heaviest shocks were felt the people were afraid to return to the villages and are living in the fields.

Now that he is located he will be followed and be brought back to camp and kept under strict surveillance.

The surrounding country is being searched for him and if caught he may be lynched, as there is great excitement over the murder.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

The Bishop of Hungary Assailed by a Man With a Knife.

BUDAPEST, April 11.—Yesterday an attempt was made to assassinate Cardinal Vassary, primate of Hungary. The assassin did not succeed in injuring the cardinal, but fatally stabbed Father Kohl. The would-be murderer was arrested and is now confined in prison. He is a married man of about 30 years, formerly engaged in the palace as butler. The crime was premeditated, and was the result of a wish for revenge for having been dismissed from his post. The man, who only expressed no regret for his action, but declared that he would make another attempt if he could. He had asked for an interview with the cardinal, pretending that he wished to plead to be reinstated in the situation, and the primate, who was a good-natured man, agreed to see him. The assassin was shown in and the cardinal heard his statement and told him that he would transmit it to the officers of the household.

This answer appeared to irritate the fellow, who at once drew a knife from his pocket, whereupon the cardinal cried out for help, and his secretary, Father Kohl, who happened to be in a rear room, ran in front of the assailant and received five stabs in the left thigh, two of which are serious. The servants hearing the noise came in and secured the assassin, who was at once taken to prison.

Father Kohl is still lying unconscious and the last sacraments of the church have been administered.

IN THE SENATE.

The Rights and Duties of Railroad Employees Discussed.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The recent decision of Judges Taft and Ricks in Ohio, and Spear in Georgia, in relation to the rights and duties of railroad employees came up in the senate yesterday in connection with a resolution instructing the committee on interstate commerce to inquire into that and other subjects, and quite a long and interesting debate followed, which had not closed when the senate adjourned. The remarks of Senators Gorman of Maryland and Voorhees of Indiana, as to the effect of those decisions being to convert railroad employees into serfs and galley slaves, were criticised by Mr. Platt (Rep., Conn.) as intemperate and as merely intended to excite the passions of the laboring men.

A resolution for a committee to wait on the president and inform him that the senate is ready to adjourn sine die was offered and agreed to without objection, but subsequently a motion to reconsider was made by Mr. Hoar (Rep., Mass.) and entered to be called up hereafter. Mr. Hoar's reason for moving to reconsider was understood to be his determination, if possible, to force the senate to take action in the way of investigating Senator Roach of North Dakota. Resolutions to investigate Mr. Roach's case and that of Mr. Power of Montana were offered by Senators Hoar and Chandler, and went over without action. In pursuance of the same purpose, Mr. Hoar successfully resisted a motion to proceed to executive business.

Four Business Buildings Burned.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 11.—An exploding gasoline stove started a fire in the Capital lodginghouse last night, which resulted in a loss of $30,000. Four business buildings belonging to Winfield Smith, A. H. Richmond and A. F. Wright burned with all contents, including Gollar's hardware store, the Richmond Furniture company and Henry Lord, Jewellers, and several smaller concerns. J. L. Brown and A. K. Rathburn were both badly injured by falling walls. A pouring rain alone saved the city from being swept away.

Ghastly Attempt at Suicide.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., April 11.—George Tucker, a laborer, shot himself in the mouth with a rifle loaded with shot last night, doing the deed in the presence of his family. The shot tore the side of his face completely off. He then seated himself, and with his own hand wiped the blood from his mangled flesh and removed his loosened teeth. He seemingly continues in a conscious condition, but he will die. Tucker has been threatening to commit suicide for some time.

STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

Four Thousand World's Fair Employees Stop Work.

ONLY ONE DAY OF IDLENESS.

MANY DISORDERS AND FIGHTS OCCUR AND THE POLICE, COLUMBIAN GUARDS AND PATROL WAGONS WERE KEPT BUSY—THE WALKING DELEGATES FINALLY GAVE UP THE FIGHT AND ORDERED THE MEN BACK TO WORK.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The sound of the hammer, the rasp of the saw and the swish of the whitewash brush are heard again this morning in Jackson park, and the great world's Columbian exposition will be opened May 1. Such was the decision reached at 10:30 o'clock last night after a complete breakdown by the walking delegates, representing 27 different trades and over 4,000 men employed on the world's fair grounds.

The strike was inaugurated yesterday by the building trades council at the request of the carpenters' union. This latter organization struck last week because the world's fair officials declined to discharge nonunion carpenters and employ union ones, though none of the latter could be had. The strike they inaugurated did not seem to worry the board of control to any considerable extent and the strike of yesterday was more to show the power of the carpenters' union than because of any grievance.

Early yesterday morning the men began to gather at the entrance to the world's fair grounds, but few of them passed through the gates. Instead they formed in groups at each of the entrances, and as fast as the workmen appeared they were asked to refrain from going to work. The importunities of the strikers were generally successful and only a small percentage of the thousands of mechanics employed in the construction of the "White City" went to work.

For some time there was no violence and the men confined themselves to growling and to making stump speeches, at which they were listened to by small crowds of workmen.

At 8 o'clock half a dozen delegates entered the grounds and started to make a tour of the buildings. During the trip their number were increased until there was a long procession of the men. The leaders fearing that the men might get into mischief ordered them to disperse. This order was shown to be a wise one, as a few minutes later several of the strikers met some men who had recently been forced to join the union. These men were at work and the strikers ordered them to quit. They refused and a small fight was started. Some Columbian guards came to the rescue and drove the strikers away.

When this was reported to Mr. Burnham he gave prompt orders that all delegates found interfering with the workmen or trying to induce them to quit work should be put off the grounds. This order was promptly put in force, and the patrol wagon was kept busy. It also prevented any trouble in the grounds.

Probably 80 per cent of the trades interested did not go to work, and many men of the other trades, who were not directly interested, knuckled off work to await the result of the trouble.

Late in the day the building trades council submitted to the board of control of the world's fair a plea for arbitration. The board held a session at Jackson park, and after many propositions had been made the walking delegates completely backed down and ordered the men back to work.

In addition to these it was said that the union men and railroaders were ready to quit if the strike was not speedily settled. The men gathered about the gates were quiet and orderly, and passed the time in discussions of the situation. By far the greater number of them seemed to regret the order to quit work. While feeling that the fair officials had not kept their word with them as a union, they as individual workmen were satisfied with their places and with the pay and honors.

Shortly after noon when the walking delegates began to realize that the exposition officials were not going to beg the men to come back and, partly to satisfy the clamor among the strikers who had by this time become much disgusted with their actions, they presented a signed stipulation to the board of control which was in regular weekly session. Several of the leaders were called before the officials and were soon convinced that they had no case. They drew up another agreement which they signed and asked the officials to sign. The latter declined but said they would recognize the agreement, and the leaders said they would at once order the men back to work.

The terms of the settlement are that union men shall be taken back and treated in the same manner as if they were not union men. That the walking delegates shall be provided with passes to visit the men at work so long as their presence does not interfere with its progress. If they do interfere, in the judgment of the fair officials, they are to be excluded from the fair and their passes revoked.

The men agree that there shall be no further trouble on any account between this time and the close of the fair. The result is considered a decided victory for the fair officials.

Assignment.

STUBENVILLE, O., April 11.—W. H. Wallace & Company of Hammondville, this county, yesterday filed letters of assignment in the courts in this city. The liabilities are estimated at $40,000. PEACE REIGNS AT HULL.

No Further Demonstration on the Part of the Strikers.

HULL, April 11.—All is at peace here. A thousand free laborers are in town and more on their way. Five foreign vessels and seven coasters were able to leave port yesterday, and work was begun at the Alexander dock this morning.

Small crowds are standing about the outside gates, but seem to be tired of doing nothing and unless the situation changes the strikers will lose the fight this week. They are very orderly, but that is due to the presence of the militia besides the police.

Captain Trainor of the first dragoons was severely injured yesterday by falling from his horse.

MINE EXPLOSION.

One Man Killed and Several Others Seriously Injured.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 11.—An explosion took place yesterday morning in Black Diamond mine, operated by John C. Haddock, at Luzerne borough. A laborer entered one of the chambers with a naked lamp and fired a pocket of gas, causing a terrific explosion, which was heard throughout the workings.

Miners in the pit hurried to the scene and found William George, aged 46 years, dead and horribly burned. William Wellington, aged 37, a laborer, was fatally burned, and three Hungarians, whose names are unknown are slightly burned and otherwise injured.

FAMINE FATALITIES.

Hundreds of People Dying in the European Part of Persia.

MOSCOW, April 11.—The famine in the European part of the government of Persia is worse than before. The poor are dying by hundreds. In the smaller villages the people have ceased trying to bury all the bodies. Relatives of the dead are often too weak to provide burial, and so leave the bodies lying on the roofs of the houses.

It is estimated that 252,000,000 pounds of grain are required to alleviate the distress and keep the peasants in food until the next harvest.

She checked her descent by grabbing the elevator cable and the flesh was torn from her hands and she was otherwise bruised.

Spontaneous Combustion.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., April 11.—About 12 o'clock last night the Young Men's Christian association building, the largest and finest in the city, erected by the famous Ira T. LATEST CROP REPORT

Condition of Winter Wheat on April 1.

NOT QUITE UP TO LAST YEAR.

The Pacific States Show a Favorable Condition, With the Exception of California, Where Too Much Rain Is Reported—Seeding Late in the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys on Account of Drouth—Damage From Hessian Fly Reported From Several States.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The April report of the statistician of the department of agriculture makes the averaging condition of winter wheat on the 1st of April 77.4, against 81.2 last year, and that of rye 85.7.

The averages of the principal wheat states are: Ohio, 87; Michigan, 74; Indiana, 82; Illinois, 72; Missouri, 76; Kansas, 62; New York, 88; Pennsylvania, 87; Maryland, 89; Virginia, 87; and Tennessee, 83.

The Pacific states show a favorable condition with the exception of California, where too much rain is reported.

Seeding was late in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys because of widely prevalent drouth causing poor condition of soil and retarding germination and in some cases wholly preventing same, as in Kansas, where the reports show a total failure over considerable areas.

In the southern, middle and Pacific states seeding conditions were favorable. The plant entered winter in the main wheat producing states in a low state of vitality caused by persistent drouth and early cold weather, with the exception of California, where excessive rains produced similar effects.

Damage from Hessian fly is noted in parts of the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois. Snow covering has been general throughout the eastern, middle and northwestern states.

The number of exhibitors of pottery and clay work, not including brick and red tile, will be 12. Seventy-five stone quarries will be represented. The agricultural exhibit will contain 1,500 jars, showing specimens of every grain and seed grown in the state. These have been furnished by 120 exhibitors.

HANDICAPPING ULSTERITES.

The Importation of Arms Made a Difficult Task.

DUBLIN, April 11.—Baron Houghton, the lord lieutenant of Ireland, has checked the preparations for armed resistance to the home rule cause by issuing an order limiting the importation of arms and ammunition to Ireland.

These can only be imported at certain ports, and all consignees must, previous to consignments, obtain a permit for the importation from the custom officers, giving particulars of the arms consigned. The custom officers are authorized to open packages containing arms or ammunition imported contrary to his orders.

Brakeman's Horrible Death.

WARSAW, Ind., April 11.—Timothy O'Brien, a brakeman on the Michigan division of the Big Four railroad, met with a horrible death in this city yesterday. He was walking over the train and in some manner fell between the cars. His head and feet were completely severed. The head of the unfortunate man was found in the Walkesdale canal, a distance of fully two blocks from the scene of the accident, whither it had been rolled by the trucks until it reached the canal bridge, when it dropped into the water below. His wife, on learning of his death, tried to drown herself.

Two Prisoners Escape.

COLUMBUS, O., April 11.—Frank Williams, received from Cuyahoga county for three years for burglary and larceny in 1892, and Livingstone Cosgrove, received from Stark county for 10 years for burglary in 1891, made a clever escape from the penitentiary Monday afternoon. Williams is a plumber, and while pretending to fix a steam radiator he opened up a trapdoor into a large air chamber underneath the prison floor and the two escaped. This is the way General Morgan, the Rebel raider, escaped way back in the sixties.

The Democrats may capture Rhode Island this spring. The recent election resulted in no choice for State officers, and the last returns makes the Legislature a tie, with twenty-six districts to hear from. If the Democrats get control of the Assembly, it is safe to say the State's election laws will be the first thing revised.

An exchange says: "Practical experiments have demonstrated that brick streets can be constructed and maintained for twenty years for one-half the cost of macadamized streets. Brick streets require very few repairs, make a fine thoroughfare in every respect, and the town adopting them will save money for the tax-payers." Suppose Maysville tests the matter.

When you buy anything in the jewelry line you don't want cheap, trashy stuff. It's simply throwing money away to buy anything but the best. You can always find the best at Ballenger's. He sells on a guarantee, and you can always count on getting your money's worth if you deal with him.

Next week there will be three big attractions at the opera house, viz: Howard Saxby's lecture Monday, April 17th, Al. G. Field's Minstrels April 21st, and the Jeffrey Lewis Combination Saturday night, April 22. The manager of the opera house is to be congratulated on securing these attractions. They are among the best on the road in their respective lines. Miss Lewis is in Louisville this week.

This makes the increase $1,883.71 in 1892-93, and is a splendid showing. The receipts of the last quarter were $4,141.65, the largest of any quarter in two years and perhaps the largest on record. When Postmaster Davis took charge of the office three years ago, the receipts were not quite $8,000 a year.

THAT SCHOOL TAX.

County Superintendent and "Farmer"
Have Something to Say About It.

Important Circular From Mr. Blatterman to Trustees in Regard to School Buildings.

Editor of the Bulletin: I think our honored Senator takes a rather pessimistic view of our public schools as connected with our county school tax. This tax has been of incalculable benefit to our schools, through lengthening the school term and elevating the standard among teachers. The law is badly worded through the use of a disjunctive instead of conjunctive conjunction, and this led some of our school districts to allow the county fund to be absorbed with the State fund for a five-months term of school. But the majority of the schools have been kept more than five months. I am just at this time issuing my annual circular to trustees, and I publish it in this connection, and I have reason to hope that the evil of which Senator Wall complains will be remedied speedily. We are only in the second year of the tax, and time is required to adjust it equitably. The schools have in general done very satisfactory work this session, and the prospect for the future of our schools is highly encouraging. Respectfully,

G. W. BLATTERMAN,
Supt. Public Schools Mason County.

CIRCULAR.

To School Trustees: The season is approaching when you have ample opportunity to repair school houses, supply deficiencies and fulfill your duties as required by the School Laws. I have noted the past season, with much satisfaction, the improvement of many of our school houses. Please remember, then, the laws require you not only to keep the houses in repair, but to have the ground enclosed with a good fence, to build good outbuildings—one for the boys and one for the girls, separated by a division fence; to have good and sufficient furniture. I ask you to arrange for the comfort and decency of the teachers and scholars just as you do in your own homes. There is no reason for any difference.

The law designs that we shall have longer school terms, and in view of this our School Fund has been increased largely. The law reads: "For lengthening the school term or for increasing the pay of the teachers." I claim that the latter clause is embraced in the former.

Next session the State Fund will be much increased. Some districts held only five months' term of school the past season, which is wrong. The tax-payers in these districts complain that notwithstanding Mason County provides upward of $15,000 per annum to supplement the State School Fund, they did not derive any benefit, as the term of school was the same as it was before Mason County voted the school tax. Certainly, this complaint is well grounded. Trustees must make contracts for longer terms of school.

Schools having thirty-five scholars should be taught not less than five months. Schools having forty-five scholars should be taught not less than seven months. Schools having over forty-five scholars should be taught nine months. That is, a school with thirty-five scholars may receive $175, a school with forty-five scholars may receive $225, a school with sixty scholars may receive $300. This is of course approximate, but it is not far from being accurate. These are the minima, and of course the income for each school will be regulated by the number of scholars.

School Trustees are important elements in our school system, and I urge upon you the duty and importance of vigilance and activity in the exercise of your official duties.

G. W. BLATTERMAN, Superintendent.
April 10, 1893.

A FARMER'S OPINION OF THE COUNTY SCHOOL TAX.
Editor Bulletin—Dear Sir: Judge Wall's article of inquiry published in your issue of the 7th instant, concerning the advisability of repealing Mason County's school tax law, is a matter which appeals to the thoughtful consideration of every man interested in the moral and intellectual advancement of mankind.

The revelation made by Judge Wall's article, based on information received by him from correspondents, that no perceptible improvement has been made in the character of our public schools, certainly had its origin in the fertile brain of some misguided creature who esteems ignorance and vice as higher attainments in the social world than the inspiring influence of educational training, which leads to a higher development of man's individual character and moral worth. The liberal appropriation now made by Mason County for educational purposes is attracting to our midst the most thoroughly equipped and desirable teachers the country affords. The transformation of the old and ill-ventilated structures into new and commodious quarters, fashioned after the most improved patterns of modern architecture, has awakened a sentiment in the people which is not only promoting the most effective methods in educational training, but is elevating our common school system to the highest point of scientific development. There may be isolated cases of bad management in this as in every other progressive movement inaugurated by the people, but if from apathy or lack of individual responsibility objectionable men are chosen trustees who recklessly pursue a course detrimental to the public weal, the evil consequences should be borne by the people and not chargeable to the imperfection of the law. The well governed schools of the county, as every one knows who has taken the pains to inform himself, have extended their school term from three months in many cases to five, and from five months in several instances to seven and one-half to eight. In other districts assistant teachers have been employed in the primary department, which enlarges the scope of instruction and promotes the most salutary effects in the individual advancement of the pupils. To place such a prime necessity beyond the reach of children whose opportunities will be restricted by no greater crime than the poverty of their parents will be a reflection on the intelligence of our people as well as revolting to the higher attributes of civilization.

It is to be hoped that Judge Wall, in passing upon the merits of this measure, will zealously guard the material welfare of a deserving public regardless of their ability to pay taxes. The writer of this article is a "tax-payer," and a resident of a district which contributes far more to the public fund than it receives, yet he nor the people whom he represents desire to be placed in category of specific "tax-payers" in discussing this important topic, but as belonging to the great army of common people who so largely constitute the population of our county. If would be sadly unfortunate if the bright future that awaits so estimable a citizen as Judge Wall should be forever destroyed by the pursuit of so fatal a course as the repeal of Mason County's School Tax Law.

FRIDAY'S FIRE.

No Longer Any Doubt That It was Started by a Spark From an L. and N. Engine.

The destructive fire on Forest avenue last Friday was unquestionably caused by a spark from an L. and N. engine. People who are acquainted with the location and the circumstances have no doubt on the subject at all. The lots on the south side of the avenue extend back to the railroad, and time and again have residents on that side of the street discovered outbuildings or fences close to the road on fire.

The southbound freight train Friday had passed the outbuilding where the fire started only a short time before the flames were discovered. It is a heavy grade at the point, and engines drawing heavy trains have a hard pull. Cinders and sparks are thrown high in the air. The wind Friday was blowing a gale directly from the track to the buildings.

The fire Friday was first discovered on the roof of the stable in the rear of Mr. W. E. Stallcup's dwelling. Parties at work on Sixth street, in the Fourth ward, saw the blaze on the roof, and were among the first to give the alarm. A gentleman coming to Maysville from out on the Fleming pike saw the blaze on the roof before the alarm was given. He was almost directly opposite the point at the time and there can be no question as to these statements. This leaves no doubt that it caught from a spark from the engine.

Under the circumstances the L. and N. should make good the loss sustained by the people burned out.

Within the past year, a spark from a C. and O. engine set fire to a stubble field near South Ripley, and destroyed a barn fifty or one hundred yards from the track. The company sent its claim agent to the scene shortly after, the amount of damages was adjusted, and the C. and O. promptly settled for the loss.

The people burned out Friday are not able to stand any loss. The heads of four of the families are faithful employees of the L. and N. They are not in a position to make any demands of the company. But the company should not wait for any demands to be made. Some of the sufferers had no insurance, and none of them were fully covered. The great big L. and N. should deal rightly with these unfortunate people and make good their loss.

Since Saturday, it has been learned that Mr. Gilbert Collins and Messrs. Wells & Biggers in addition to the parties heretofore named rendered valuable assistance in taking hose and hose carriages to the fire. Mr. Collins made three trips with his wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lewis desire, through the BULLETIN, to return sincere thanks to all who rendered them any assistance at the fire, and also to the friends who have since opened their homes to them. They are deeply grateful for the kindness and hospitality extended them.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Christian Church have secured James Whitcomb Riley for an entertainment at the opera house May 1. When the noted "Hoosier Poet" and electionist was here a year ago he delighted all who heard him, and he will no doubt be greeted by a crowded house on his approaching visit.

REV. FATHER G. W. BEALER, after five years faithful service as assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, has been made pastor of the church at Versailles, and will leave next Tuesday for his new field of labor. He has endeared himself to the parishioners of St. Patrick's Church, and his departure will be sincerely regretted.

MR. SOCRATES RUGGLESS has resigned his position as Cashier of the Deposit Bank of Vanceburg, and Dr. Thos. S. Clark has been appointed in his place. Mr. Ruggless has large property interests in Vanceburg and Huntington, W. Va., which require so much of his attention that he could not give his time to the bank. He will still remain a director and is a large stockholder. Dr. Clark is a man of wealth and a fine business man, and was the unanimous choice of the directors and resident stockholders.

Some lace curtains in a room on the second floor of Mr. John M. Hunt's residence caught fire from a gas jet last evening and caused the alarm at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's child, with the nurse, was in the room at the time. The latter retained her presence of mind, however, and at once carried the child out of the house. Mr. Paul Crane was passing when the curtains caught, and hurrying to thorough he extinguished the blaze before it did much damage. The fire was caused by the nurse girl opening a window, the wind blowing the curtains against the gas jet.

KING CARLOS SHOT AT.
Fortunately For the Ruler of Portugal the Bullet Missed Its Mark.
Lisbon, April 11.—While King Carlos was driving through the Avenida park yesterday a man fired a shot at his majesty, which failed. The would-be assassin was arrested, and turned out to be a prominent society man by the name of Levi and a member of the aristocracy. He disclaimed to have had any political ends to serve and it is not thought he belongs to any political order. He is either a lunatic or suffering with delirium tremens.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.
